

A Mirboo North Retrospective 2011

A regular feature for many years in May was the Art Show and the Arty Gras. We assume that because of COVID-19, the Art Show has been put off until next year, while we are not at all sure of the future of the Arty Gras.

To mark the 30th Art Show, ten years ago there were plenty of images of previous covers of brochures for an event that started in 1982, while we are also giving a taste of what street parades were like.
